

Tom Buckley BA (hons) MSc

Learning Technologist / Instructional Designer

Learning Designer / Digital Learning Manager

Biography

Tom Buckley is a modern professional with a wide range of skills and experiences within the education sector. Having built a career around supporting health education and innovation. This has seen Tom have many roles in developing e-Learning, engaging in learning design and the fun creative part of the sector. However, Tom is equally adept at managing teams and developing services to support innovation. Tom is particularly attuned to navigating complicated organisations and cutting through bureaucracy. He is known as a clear, concise, and warm communicator who always finds ways to make things happen. After a long stint with one employer Tom is currently looking for new work experiences and challenges particularly on fixed term contracts.
